About the survey

Methodology

The survey took place between 16 March and 20 April 2018. It was sent by post to 10,000 randomly selected residents across the borough and received 2,165 replies, equating to a response rate of 21.65%.

Recipients could either reply online or return the paper version of the survey, a copy of which is attached as Appendix 1.

The reply rates from each method are shown below:

- Surveys sent: 10,000
- Online replies: 401 (4.01%)
- Paper replies: 1,764 (17.64%)
- Total replies: 2,165 (21.65%)

Responses have been weighted by gender, age, ethnicity and accommodation type to ensure the results represent the characteristics of the borough's overall population, as shown below.

Some questions are only available through routing, depending on the answer given to a previous question. Where a resident has answered a question in such a way as to render the following question unanswerable, any answer given to the following question has been disregarded. Where a resident has not answered the routing question but has given an answer to the following question, they are treated as having answered the routing question in such a way to allow them to answer the following question.

Types of question

A mixture of open and closed questions were included in the survey. Open questions are those where respondents were asked to provide information by writing their own comments. Closed questions are those where respondents were given a list of answers to choose from, and these questions follow a Likert rating scale. (For example, the question asking how satisfied residents are with their local area as a place to live gave response options of "Very satisfied", "Fairly satisfied", "Neither satisfied nor dissatisfied", "Fairly dissatisfied", "Very dissatisfied" and "Don't know").

Analysis of results

Responses to questions have been analysed by a range of variables:

- Age, broken down into age groups as shown in the table above
- Area. The borough has been divided into three areas (Ashford town centre, the outskirts of the town and the rest of the borough) - Electoral ward
- Acorn category. Acorn is a segmentation tool which categorises the UK population into types based on significant social factors and population behaviour. There are six categories as shown below.

| | | |
|---|--------------------------------|--|
| 1 | Affluent Achievers | Some of the most financially successful people in the UK |
| 2 | Rising Prosperity | Generally younger, well educated and prosperous people |
| 3 | Comfortable Communities | Stable families and empty nesters in suburban or semi-rural locations, also comfortably-off pensioners in retirement areas |
| 4 | Financially Stretched | Incomes tend to be well below average, unemployment and the proportion of people claiming other benefits are above average |
| 5 | Urban Adversity | The most deprived areas and communities across the UK |
| 6 | Not Private Households | People living in communal establishments such as military bases, hostels, refuges, hotels and other holiday accommodation |

Cross-tabulating responses by these variables allows us to identify where views differ among different groups.

In some cases, responses to one question have been cross-tabulated by responses to another question to identify where there is correlation.

Responses to open questions have been analysed by reading all comments received and grouping them by theme.

Statistical significance

Based on the overall population of the borough and the number of survey responses received, the results of the survey are statistically valid to a margin of error of 2.06% at the 95% confidence interval. In other words, if everyone in the borough completed the survey, the answers given by 95% of them would be no less than 2.06% below the survey results and no more than 2.06% above the survey results.

Interpretation of survey data

To aid interpretation, results are presented as consistently as possible throughout this report. All results are expressed as percentages, rounded to the nearest percentage point. Please note this means percentages may not add up to 100% in all cases.

Summary of key findings

Communication with the council

The most common channel for residents currently receiving information from the council is the corporate website and this is also the most preferred channel for receiving information in future.

Just 13% of respondents indicated that they currently find out about council news and services via email, but this is the second most preferred method by which people would like to receive information in the future.

More residents would also like to find out about council information by text message and social media than currently receive information in this way. This would suggest that residents are becoming more interested in receiving communications which are tailored to their specific needs and interests.

47% of residents are very or fairly satisfied with council car parks, compared to 27% who are dissatisfied to some extent.

However, there is no direct correlation between the cost of parking and socio-economic category as although the least affluent Acorn category, "Urban Adversity", has the second lowest level of satisfaction, the lowest level of dissatisfaction is found in this group.

Satisfaction by Acorn category:

Base: 2,152 (all respondents excluding 13 no reply)

Across the borough as a whole, over two thirds of residents state they recycle everything that can be recycled and a further one in five say they recycle a lot. Just 9% say they either recycle a bit or not at all.

- Rising Prosperity: 99% recycle everything or a lot and 1% recycle a bit or not at all
- Comfortable Communities: 90% recycle everything or a lot and 10% recycle a bit or not at all

Older residents tend to recycle more. The highest recycling rate is found among residents aged 65 and over, 84% of whom say they recycle everything and 2% do not recycle. Conversely, 47% of 18 to 25 year olds say they recycle everything while 16% do not recycle at all.

Are you confident in what you are able to recycle?

Base: 2,149 (all respondents excluding 16 no reply)

Across the borough as a whole, over 80% of residents say they feel confident in what they are able to recycle.

At ward level, over half of residents in Tenterden North (58%) say they are not confident in what they are able to recycle. This goes some way to explaining why 45% of residents in the ward do not recycle.

Similarly, over a quarter of residents in Norman ward (26%) said they don't know and 29% of people in the ward say they only recycle a bit.

At the other end of the scale, over 90% of residents in Charing and Beaver wards feel confident in what they are able to recycle.
